Lisbon, October 14, N. S.

THE Marriages of the Prince of Brazil with the Infanta of Caſtile, and of the Prince of Aſturias with the Infanta of Portugal, were declared here the 9th Inſtant, upon which Occaſion Te Deum was ſung in the Patriarchal Church, the Patriarch officiating, their Portugueſe Majeſties with the Royal Family being preſent; and their Majeſties returning to the Palace received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction. Illuminations and other Publick Rejoycings were ordered throughout this City the three ſucceeding Days.

Paris, Oct. 22, N. S. King Staniſlaus, with the Queen his Conſort, who ſet out from Strasbourg the 22d of laſt Month, in order to come to the Royal Seat of Chambord where they are to reſide, arrived at Bouron near Fontainebleau the 15th Inſtant. The ſame Day the Queen, accompanied by Mademoiſelle de Clermont Princeſs of the Blood, with the Ladies and principal Officers of her Court, went to Bouron to ſee King Staniſlaus and his Queen; and on the 16th his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty went thither to make them a Viſit: On the 19th they ſet out from thence for Chambord. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria, with his Brothers the Elector of Cologne, Duke Ferdinand, and the Biſhop of Ratisbon, who have been incognito here and at Court ſince the Beginning of laſt Month, have taken Leave of the King and Queen, in order to their Departure.

Hague, Oct. 26, N. S. Yeſterday the States of the Province of Holland adjourned their Aſſembly to next Month, after having had ſeveral Conferences with the States General about the Oppoſition made by the Zealanders to the Collection of the Tarif or new Duties on Goods imported or exported: The Reſult of which Conferences is, that their High Mightineſſes have paſſed a Reſolution to cauſe neceſſary Meaſures to be taken for putting the ſaid Tarif in Execution. Count Hompeſch, with two Commiſſiones appointed by the States of Holland, ſet out from hence the 24th Inſtant with a Detachment of Troops, to take Poſſeſſion of the Lordſhip of Vianen, and to receive Homage from the Inhabitants in the Name of the ſaid States. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria, and Duke Ferdinand his Brother, are daily expected here from Paris. Count Konigſeck, the Emperour's Miniſter, is not yet arrived.

Gohre, Oct. 11, O. S. This Morning between Seven and Eight a-Clock His Majeſty and His Royal Highneſs Prince Frederick went a Hunting, and did not return till Four in the Afternoon. The Weather has been very fine ever ſince the King's Arrival here.

General Poſt-Office, Oct. 7, 1725.

Whereas upon a ſtrict Examination of the Rider, together with the Circumſtances, which are ſince found to agree with his Relation, it does appear that the Croſs-Road Mail which conſtantly goes between Cheſter and Exeter, was really taken away from the Rider upon Sunday the 26th of September laſt, about Three a-Clock in the Morning, by two Men on Horſeback, near Penſford, a Village about ſeven Miles from Briſtol, in the Road to Wells, who carried off the entire Mail, which had in it the Bags of Letters of the ſeveral Towns of Cheſter, Whitchurch, Shrewsbury, Bridgnorth, Bewdley, Kidderminſter, Worceſter, Tewksbury, Glouceſter, Wotten-Underidge, Briſtol, Wells, Bridgwater, Taunton, Wellington, Tiverton and Exeter; and Expreſſes having been immediately, the very ſame Morning, ſent away from Briſtol to Cheſter and Exeter, to give Notice of the Accident to the ſeveral Poſt Towns mentioned, and their Dependencies, and no Notice having been as yet ſent to the General Poſt-Office at London, of any Bank Notes, or other Notes, or Bills, that were in the ſaid Mail, with Endorſements upon them, according to the Method propoſed in the Advertiſement ſo long publiſhed in the Prints, it is to be preſumed that there were no ſuch Notes, or

Bills
